On the front of the new O. L. & I. Railway building and the new Shambart-Christiansen building there is a sign which reads: All electrical work in this building is being done by the Cache Valley Electric Co. It is a pleasure to see this wide awake concern going after the business in their line. We like to see the local boys do this work, and the time is past when it is necessary to go out of town for any kind of skilled labor.
